

IN THE COMMON PLEAS COURT OF FRANKLIN COUNTY, OHIO
DIVISION OF DOMESTIC RELATIONS AND JUVENILE BRANCH

PETITIONER

CASE NO. _____

V.

JUDGE _____

RESPONDENT

NOTICE TO NONREGISTERING PARTY

Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code section 3115.605, the nonregistering party is hereby given notice of the following:

1. A support order or income withholding order issued in another state has been registered with this court. A copy of the registered order and related documents accompany this notice.
2. A registered support order is enforceable as of the date of registration in the same manner as an order issued by a tribunal of this state.
3. A hearing to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order must be requested within twenty days after notice unless the registered order is under section 3115.707 of the Revised Code.
4. Failure to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order in a timely manner will result in confirmation of the order and enforcement of the order and the alleged arrearages.
5. The amount of the alleged arrearages under the support order is _____.
6. The registering party IS or IS NOT (check one) asserting that two or more orders are in effect.

If the registering party IS asserting that two or more orders are in effect:

- a. The Orders are identified as: _____

_____.
- b. The Party seeking registration asserts _____ to be the controlling order.
- c. The amount of the consolidated arrearages is _____.
- d. The nonregistering party has the right to a determination of which is the controlling order and the procedures outlined in number 2, 3 and 4 above apply to the determination of which is the controlling order.
- e. Failure to contest the validity or enforcement of the order alleged to be the controlling order in a timely manner may result in confirmation that the order is the controlling order.

A nonregistering party seeking to contest the validity or enforcement of a registered order in this state must request a hearing no later than twenty days after the date of mailing or personal service of the notice of the registration by filing a motion with this court. A motion contesting the validity or enforcement of a registered order should be filed with the Franklin County Clerk of Courts, Juvenile Division, 373 South High Street, 4th Floor, Columbus, Ohio 43215.

A nonregistering party may seek to vacate the registration, to assert any defense to an allegation of noncompliance with the registered order, or to contest the remedies being sought or the amount of any alleged arrearages pursuant to Ohio Revised Code 3115.607. If the nonregistering party fails to request a hearing in a timely manner, the order is confirmed by operation of law. If the nonregistering party makes a timely request for a hearing, this court will conduct a hearing to determine whether the registered order should be confirmed.
